2019 Multicultural Perspectives Public Speaking Competition

Congratulations to Corey Binks, who yesterday won the local final of the 2019 Multicultural Perspectives Public Speaking Competition.

Corey's prepared speech was on Human Rights and Wrongs and he presented an impromptu speech on Imagination.

Corey will represent our school at a regional final in August. We look forward to tracking Corey's progress.

From the Principal's Desk

- ♦ We have had many enquiries for Kindergarten 2020. The school will be able to provide packages to both sibling's families and for those whom live within the OHPS zone. If someone you know of is unsure, please call the office and they will be able to assist.
- ♦ Last week the staff at OHPS enjoyed a Wellness Week. We celebrated the Biggest Morning Tea to raise money for the Cancer Council as one of our activities. This same day your child may have told you about teachers dressing up. We had a surgeon, Spiderman, Minnie Mouse and many other characters at school.
- ♦ Attendance letters are being posted this week. OHPS monitors student attendance at school closely and we flag students who fall under 90%. It is important to provide the class teachers with reasons for absence if your child is away.
- ♦ Congratulations to Corey Binks who is going to attend Multicultural Perspective Public Speaking Finals in Sydney in August. This is quite an achievement for our Year Six student.
