Principal's Message:

Quote: "Begin to be now what you will be hereafter."- William James.

Some points to note at this time of year:

- ♦ School starts at 9.00 am. In the last week there have been a significant number of students running late to class. Missing the start of their day can have an impact on their education.
- ♦ Brimmed hats are available at the canteen as well as the uniform shop. Caps are not to be brought to school. Students are encouraged to wear school uniform with pride both in and out of school.
- ♦ Planning for 2019 is well underway and class teachers are starting to finalise student reports.
- ♦ Next Wednesday evening is our Presentation Night. This will be held at Senior Campus hall.
- ♦ If you are still in the grounds after 3.05pm please respect the school rules and have your child abide by these.
- ♦ End of year school activities are a privilege, not a right, for students to attend. Many students are looking forward to the fun!

School Holiday Camps

For children with Autism who are NDIS participants aged 10-12 years

Our camps are for children who would like to build confidence, social skills and personal connections.

Participants will be

- Country NSW children with a primary diagnosis of Autism
- Functioning independently in a school environment
- With NDIS funds in Social & Community Participation

Camps combine group therapy sessions with fun filled activities including rock climbing, surfing, arts and crafts and plenty more! Each activity has been designed to encourage and develop teamwork, positive relationship building and emotional management. Camps include meals and onsite accommodation for each participating child and one guardian.

Where?

Camps take place at our beachside Centre for Country Kids in Manly

When?

14 - 17 January 2019 • 21 - 24 January 2019

Royal Far West School Holiday Camps

At Royal Far West, we understand the challenges many families face in trying to access disability supports for their children. That's why, in January 2019, we will be holding two school holiday camps for children with Autism as part of our Windmill Program.

The camps are for NDIS participants aged 10-12 years and are exclusively for children from rural and remote New South Wales. They will combine group therapy and supported recreation activities to build children's social skills and confidence and provide an opportunity to try new activities in a safe and nurturing environment.

Royal Far West will be subsidising the cost of these camps to minimise the financial burden on parents.
